

SYMPOSIUM 24th May 2022

The Museum of Medicine Brussels (ERASME) – Route de Lennik 808 Lenniksebaan
1070 Bruxelles – Brussel

UPDATES ON NON-TUBERCULOUS MYCOBACTERIA

- 9.00-10.30 NTM diagnosis and treatment: the clinician's perspective – Natalie Lorent (UZ Leuven)
New NTM treatment guidelines and future developments - Jakko van Ingen (Radboud UMC)
- 10.30-11.00 Coffee Break
- 11.00-12.15 NTM: diagnostic & epidemiology –Samira Boarbi (Sciensano)
The genus Mycobacterium: need for revision - Conor Meehan (ITG)
NTM treatment: pharmacological challenges - Isabel Spriet (UZ Leuven)
- 12.15-12.45 General Assembly
- 12.45-13.45 Walking lunch

KEYNOTE LECTURE IN MEMORIAM OF JEAN-PIERRE THYS

- 13.45-14.45 New arboviroses – Emmanuel Bottiau (ITG)
- 14.45-15.15 Coffee Break

THE FUTURE OF INFECTIOUS DISEASE AFTER THE PANDEMIC

- 15.15-17.00 Follow-up of the implementation of the new version of the EUCAST recommendations –Daniel Huang (CHU ULC Namur)
- Recognition of microbiology and infectiology: remaining challenges
– Erika Vlieghe (UZ Antwerpen) – Olivier Denis (CHU UCLNamur)
- Funding of infectiology - Peter Messiaen (Jessa Ziekenhuis)
- SBIMC/BVIKM Working subgroups: activities and challenges
- IGGI - Jan Vancauwenberghe (SBIMC/BVIKM)
 - Young trainees – Bieke Tack (ITG)
 - COVID treatment guidelines - Maya Hites (ULB Erasme)
- 17.00 End of the meeting

Attendance must be announced (on registration form)

Registration fees: SBIMC-BVIKM members: free / Non-member: 50€ / student/in training: 30€

Accreditation requested for physicians/clinical biologist (ethics and economics) and hospital pharmacists (treatment and prevention of infections)

